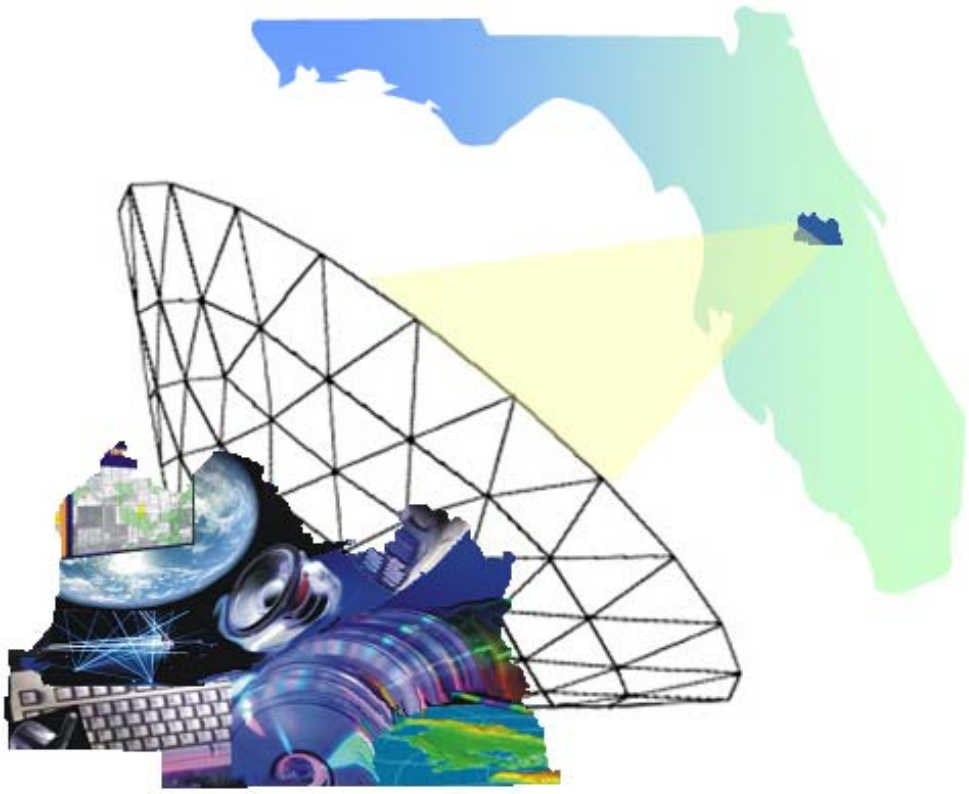
Seminole County Integrated Network

Addressing Report



Seminole County Department of Planning and Development

University of Central Florida

CONTENTS Page

1. INTRODUCTION 3

2. LITERATURE REVIEW AND BEST PRACTICES 33

3. METHODOLOGY 35
   3.1. Business Process Evaluation Methodology 35
   3.2 Technical Evaluation Methodology 36

4. RESULTS 39
   4.1 Business Process Evaluation Results 39
   4.2. Technical Evaluation Results 47

5. BUSINESS REQUIREMENTS 52
   5.1 Expectation and Use Case Scenarios 52
   5.2 System Categories Architecture 63
      5.2.1 Geographic Information 65
      5.2.2 Plats Submission 67
      5.2.3 Application Submission 69
      5.2.4 Tracking / Status 71
      5.2.5 Communication 73
      5.2.6 Work Flow 75
      5.2.7 Address Approval 77
      5.2.8 Input Control 79
      5.2.9 Storage 81
      5.2.10 Parcel Update 83
      5.2.11 Address Update 86
   5.3 System-Level Use Cases 90
      5.3.1 Customer 90
      5.3.2 Staff 91
      5.3.3 Administrator 92
      5.3.4 System 93

6. RECOMMENDATIONS 94
6.1 Business Process Recommendations 94
6.1.1 Specific Business Recommendation 94
6.1.2 General Business Recommendation 97
6.1.3 Improving Results 100
6.2 New Addressing Procedures Flow Charts 102
Figure 6.1 Building Permit Approval Procedure 103
Figure 6.2 Development Review Addressing Procedure for Cities 104
Figure 6.3 Development Review Addressing Procedure for Seminole County 106
Figure 6.4 Public Street Name Change Procedure 108
Figure 6.5 Private Street Name Change Procedure 111
Figure 6.6 Re-Addressing Procedure 113
Figure 6.7 Variance Procedure 115
Figure 6.8 New Address Updating Procedure for 911 117
6.3 Technical Recommendations 118
6.3.1 System Architecture 119
6.3.2 Use Case Diagram 120